

Contents

1. Caste, Culture, and Ritual Hierarchies: A Historical Study of Marginalised Communities in the Religious Landscape of Rawain Valley in Uttarkashi District of Uttarakhand 1-22
Subhash Chandra and Jyotsana Sonal
2. Natural Justice vis-à-vis Service Jurisprudence: Applied Dimensions of the Constitutional Mandates in India 23-41
Rupam Saikia
3. The Historical, Cultural, and Strategic Significance of Mount Hermon: An Interdisciplinary Analysis 43-57
Khandaker Mursheda Farhana and Kazi Abdul Mannan
4. Archaeology, Policies and British Rule-A Review 59-69
Debasri Dasgupta Ghosh
5. Representation of Khas Practices on the Fairs and Festivals of Western Garhwal 71-78
Ankush Bisht, Subhash Chandra and Shivam Raj Chauhan
6. The Ascetics, Food practices, and Society presented in the Vālmiki Rāmāyaṇa 79-83
Km. Rakhi and Shweta Verma
7. Buddhist Heritage of Uttarakhand: Archaeology, Culture, and Sustainable Tourism 85-93
Sunil Singh Subodha Mendaly and Yogambar Singh Farswan

Editorial Introduction to the Volume Third, Issue First of the Journal of Historical, Archaeological and Anthropological Studies (JHAAS)

Dear Readers,

The Editorial Board is pleased to release First Issue of Volume Third of the Journal of Historical, Archaeological, and Anthropological Studies (JHAAS). This issue features a collection of insightful and thought-provoking research papers that cover a broad range of topics in the fields such as Caste, Culture, and Ritual Hierarchies: A Historical Study of Marginalised Communities in the Religious Landscape of Rawain Valley in Uttarkashi District of Uttarakhand, Natural Justice vis-à-vis Service Jurisprudence: Applied Dimensions Of the Constitutional Mandates In India, the Historical, Cultural, and Strategic Significance of Mount Hermon: An Interdisciplinary Analysis, Archaeology, Policies and British Rule-A Review and Representation of Khas Practices on the Fairs and Festivals of Western Garhwal tec. Related to history and archaeology

The papers in this journal will explore various themes, including the impact of Sculptural and Structural remains, Numismatics of Gold coins, the significance of material culture in reconstructing past societies through scientific analyses of potteries, Management of environmental issues, Quest of spirituality and also Enduring power of Scholarship and pursuit of knowledge. We are confident that these papers will contribute to the advancement of knowledge in these important fields, and inspire further research in these areas.

Additionally, our Editorial Board will also feature articles that delve into the intersections of archaeology and anthropology, including the use of bioarchaeological methods to explore social and economic inequalities in ancient societies and the role of technology in enhancing our understanding of historical and archaeological contexts.

We are committed to including and presenting the highest quality papers that cover various aspects of history including social sciences, archaeology, and anthropology, and we invite scholars from all over the world to submit their research papers for consideration. We encourage researchers to take a holistic approach to these fields, recognizing the interrelated nature of history, archaeology, and anthropology.

We look forward to continuing to serve as a platform for the dissemination of research and ideas in these important fields. We hope that the articles in our Journal will inspire further research and stimulate discussion among scholars of history, archaeology, and anthropology.

Sincerely,
Prof. Yogambar Singh Farswan
Editor-In-Chief